Rule Nos. 113 & 114 of the BTC Rules of Racing

TRAINERS LICENCES

113. No person shall train a horse registered under these rules for fee or reward without having first obtained, from the Stewards of the Club, a licence, which may be subject to such restrictions and conditions as they may consider necessary.

No such licence shall remain in force for more than one racing season.

The fee for such licence shall be fixed by the Stewards of the Club from time to time.

The Stewards of the Club may refuse to grant such Licence and may at any time cancel or revoke such licence without giving any reasons thereof.

114.(a) Any person training a horse in contravention of this rule may be warned off the course and shall then be subject to all the disabilities specified under the Rules.

(b) In addition to or in lieu of any other penalties or punishments as may be laid down under these Rules of Racing, a Trainer may be fined, suspended or disqualified by the Stewards :

- (i) If his conduct or negligence or neglect in the performance of his duties as a licenced professional has led or could have led to a breach of the Rules of Racing;
- (ii) If he shall misconduct himself in any way;
- (iii) If he be found intoxicated, use profane, indecent language or use threatening, abusive or insulting words.

(c)(i) Should a Trainer be suspended from possessing a licence granted to him to train race horses, he shall not train race horses under these rules or under the Rules of any other recognised Turf Authority during the period of his suspension.

(ii) If and when a Trainer be suspended from training race horses and if he were to own horses either solely or in partnership to race, entries of such horses shall not be accepted and in respect of entries already accepted, such horses shall not be permitted to start under these rules or under the rules of any other recognised Turf Authority during the period of his suspension.

(iii) A Trainer, whose licence has been withdrawn, is a disqualified person.
