NOTICE

26th June 2022

The Red Hood

For the information of All Trainers and Racing Patrons

Henceforth, if a Trainer so desires to use a Hood only in the parade ring and while going to the start for a fractious/nervous horse to block the crowd noise. He may do so with the prior permission of the Stipendiary Stewards in writing.

In such cases the said horse will only be permitted to use a Red Hood which will indicate to the public that this equipment is for the limited purpose of the parade ring and getting to the starting gate and the said horse will not race with the Red Hood.

A Hood worn during the race can be of any other colour other than Red or any shades of Red in the future.

In order to be consistent and see the people do not misuse this permission once applied for to the Stipendiary Stewards.

- a) The Red Hood must be used for a minimum of Three (3) races like any other equipment.
- b) It is the responsibility of the Jockey and the Starter to see that all such Red Hood's are removed before the horse enters the gate and to ensure that the no horse runs the race with a Red Hood.

By order of the Stewards,

Chief Stipendiary Steward
